Six Secrets of Change : Effective Governance Teams

That's exactly what I did recently after someone mentioned Michael Fullan's Six Secrets of Change. The book was published in 2008. I loved it then and it was definitely due a "re-read." True to Fullan's philosophy, Six Secrets focuses on moral purpose, specifically in organizations like schools, but also in companies as well. In fact, Fullan begins the preface by noting the book is the second one he's written where he examined both business and education examples.
