The Kings Of Big Spring

The Kings of Big Spring is a work of art chronicling a bygone era in Texas. Mealer's family history woven in with the history of oil discovery in Texas results in a fabulous book that reads like fiction. Propped up by and relying heavily on religion and fortitude, his family withstands more hard times than any one family deserves.

The Kings of Big Spring: God, Oil, and One Family's Search ...

God, like Texas oil, was a constant threat or promise; church was as all encompassing—and sometimes oppressive—as family. The Mealer men were wannabe kings, hoping to claim the throne that an oil boom promised—or to at least own their own land. The Kings of Big Spring is a family tree that offers no shade for its errant members. Violent, luckless husbands; unfaithful, hapless wives; and abandoned, wayward children are plentiful here.
