Strategic Management in Public Administration - Oxford ...

Public Relations has long aspired to be seen as a strategic management function, given the same respect in the board room as marketing and human resources. However, in 2011 US scholar James Grunig argued that rather than being seen as strategic management, 'public relations has been institutionalized as a symbolic-interpretive activity that organizations use to exert their power over publics and to disguise the consequences of their behaviors from publics, governments, and the media’.

Public relations as strategic management - PR Academy

Strategic Management in Public Organizations: European Practices and Perspectives offers the first wide-ranging survey and assessment of strategic management practices at various levels of government and public service in European countries. It shows that strategic management is much more than a management tool imported from the private sector - it has become a key element of public management reforms, and European governments at all levels are developing ‘strategic state’ characteristics.
