Review: Bloodspell (Bloodspell #1) by Amalie Howard

Howard has taken two cliché and overdone paranormal sub-genres and has created something entirely new and exciting in Bloodspell. There are so many elements of the story that could have fallen into "been there, read that" territory; new girl at school meets boy, they are inexplicably drawn to one another, boy keeps pushing away girl because they "shouldn't be together," boy is "dangerous" and ...
