The emergence of Indian nationalism: competition and collaboration in the later nineteenth century.

The emergence of Indian nationalism: competition and ...

Indian National Congress was founded in December 1885 by seventy-two political workers. It was the first organised expression of Indian Nationalism on an all-India scale. The rise and growth of Indian nationalism has been traditionally explained in terms of Indian response to the stimulus generated by the British Raj through creation of new institutions, new opportunities, etc.

Rise of Nationalism in India | Indian History

Indian nationalism developed as a concept during the Indian independence movement which campaigned for independence from British rule. Indian nationalism is an instance of territorial nationalism, which is inclusive of all of the people of India, despite their diverse ethnic, linguistic and religious backgrounds. It continues to strongly influence the politics of India and reflects an opposition to the sectarian strands of Hindu nationalism and Muslim nationalism.

Indian nationalism - Wikipedia

Ultimately the Indian National Congress emerged as a platform for the organisation of national movement. All these factors jointly, had promoted the growth of nationalism in India. Indian nationalism was not the hand maid of a particular class, but the result of a common consciousness among all classes of India. From 1885, the Indian National Congress helped in widening and consolidating the growth process of nationalism. Ultimately, it had brought independence in India.
