Spectrality in the Novels of Toni

Morrison

A finalist (and in my books, at least, the front runner) for this year's National Book Award, Susan Choi's fifth novel Trust Exercise is a novel in three parts. There's a lot of concern over not ruining the twist that comes in part two (and to a lesser extent, part three), but it's impossible to describe quite why this is one of the best novels of the decade without giving it away.
