Creative Responsibility

Creative Responsibility means I might have to say no to this shiny new idea. I'm highly considering it. I'm not sure where it fits into my life. I'm not sure my wife will like how much time I'm going to have to put into it. How will it affect my kids? What about the other ideas that I have already taken responsibility for?

Creativity is not a talent. It's not a mood or a feeling, it is not art, a special ability or any other temporary state of mind reserved for only a privileged few. Creativity is a modus operandi, our intrinsic individual ability to face and respond to the uncertainty and mysteries of our existence. It's our essential birthright, our fuel for rebelling against decay, our irregular heartbeats and our mind's engine.
