Folk Elements in Burmese Buddhism.: Maung Htin Aung ...

Burmese folk religion refers to the animistic and polytheistic religious worship of nats and ancestors in Myanmar. Although the beliefs of nats differ across different regions and villages in Burma, there are a handful of beliefs that are universal in Burmese folk religion. A nat is a spirit or god who resembles a human in shape that often maintains or guards objects. When people die, they can become nats. Those who become nats often have a gruesome violent death which explains their vengeful na
