Good Enough to Eat is my favorite of the two books I've read by Lucy Hudson. I enjoy forced proximity romances a lot, and thought this one was very cute. It read like a Hallmark movie, but I did get to the point where I started skimming the sex scenes because they were a bit too long for me considering the length of the book.

Good enough to eat has the great food that is expected of New York City, but without the exorbitant prices. We had the salmon and goat cheese sandwich and the bacon waffles and both were excellent. The bloody Marys are also clutch. Finally, if you like bacon, don't leave without trying some. The bacon is probably the best I've ever had.
