The Making of Americans, novel by Gertrude Stein, completed in 1911 and considered to be one of Stein's major works. The novel was not published in book form until 1925 because of its lengthiness and experimental style. The Making of Americans lacks plot, dialogue, and action. Gertrude Stein attempts to psychoanalyze all of her characters by not just explaining their parent's personalities, but also their grandparent's personalities. It's an interesting approach, but combined with Stein's repetitious style of writing, it becomes extremely tedious.
