Our Southern Highlanders

Our Southern Highlanders: A Narrative of Adventure in the Southern Appalachians and a Study of Life Among the Mountaineers is a book written by American author Horace Kephart (1862-1931), first published in 1913 and revised in 1922.

Our Southern Highlanders - Wikipedia

"Our Southern Highlanders" is a passionate, personal portrayal of a people Kephart believed that their fellow Americans had long neglected and little understood. He portrays the rugged existence of isolated mountaineers in clearings eking out a subsistence living from farming with little knowledge, in most cases, of the world beyond their hollows. The traits Kephart emphasizes throughout in ...

Kephart's classic presents an examination of the people, culture, traditions, dialect, etc. of the Southern Highlands in the southeastern United States around the turn of the 19th to 20th century. My favorite part when reading about the people who settled this region of the country is where they originally came from and how they got there.
