Introduction to Fiction Course: "The Yellow Wallpaper"

This word choice is interesting because I think it is meant to connect the woman in the wallpaper to the narrator. The woman symbolizes the narrator in regards to the fact that the woman in the wallpaper was described as feeling trapped and wanting to get out throughout the story, just as the narrator feels trapped in her own mind and life and wants to break free.

Hi - I took my AQA English Lit exam in June and received a good (though unmoderated) mark for my NEA. Having read last year's examiner's report I'd exercise caution with The Yellow Wallpaper. I too was considering using it, but from what AQA have said there its brevity could actually work against you if you don't focus enough on it as a literary
