Back in the early 1980s, there was a New Thought minister in San Diego, CA named Terry Cole-Whittaker. She was and still is a very vivacious speaker who was so popular that she even had her own Sunday morning TV program. During that time, she authored a book called, "What You Think of Me Is None Of My Business." Although Terry's path changed rather dramatically in the years that followed, one of her legacies is the ideas behind the title.
