Rules of Conduct Consultation. For those who rely on the critical expertise of RICS professionals around the world, we want to ensure our professionals remain trusted and future fit by evolving the rules that underpin how they operate. To keep up with new priorities impacting the built and natural environment – and respond to new client expectations – we know RICS professionals will benefit from a clearer framework to uphold the highest ethical standards.

Rules of Conduct Consultation - RICS

The amendments to the conduct rules serve two purposes: they enhance guidance to lawyers and paralegals on professional conduct; and; facilitate uniform national professional conduct standards in an environment of increased mobility of lawyers across Canada.
