The sixth reason for pressing to the tithe and beyond is that it is God's way of providing you, the tither, sufficient money for your needs. Giving is a way of having what you need. Giving in a regular, disciplined, generous way—up to and beyond the tithe—is simply good sense in view of the promises of God.

Toward the Tithe and Beyond | Desiring God

Unfortunately, many Christians have been taught a narrow definition of stewardship that only involves tithing and managing personal finances. This limited view of stewardship has led many to believe that everything outside of those arenas belongs to them and can be used however they want—especially their work.
