The Cigarette Century PDF Summary - Allan M. Brandt ...

I very much hope that this site will serve to generate a vigorous debate about issues concerning the history, culture, and politics of cigarette use in the United States and around the globe. I wrote The Cigarette Century to trace the remarkable rise and dramatic decline of cigarette consumption in the United States. Once a popular and prominent behavior, smoking has, as we have seen, become a marginalized and often stigmatized practice.

The Cigarette Century

Courtesy of its snappy title, the book is billed as being about the one-hundred year rise, fall, and persistence of the cigarette, yet it gives the greater part of its attention to struggles over tobacco smoking since the landmark 1964 Surgeon General's Report. Just over a fifth concerns the years before 1945.
