The God We Can Know: Exploring the 'I Am' Sayings of Jesus ...

We can know both God and truth if we are willing to give up some time and energy and approach God and the Bible with prayer, honesty, perseverance, humility, and intellectual rigor. Of course, this means taking time out of our busy lives and dedicating it to Bible study and learning about God. But that investment will pay off thousands of times over. If you are a Christian, you will live ...

Can we really "know" God? - What does the Bible say ...

We fill the space between us with everything we can get our hands on because, deep down, we know there is something terrible about staring into the mystery for ourselves and finding ourselves fully seen and fully known in return. Even if we find a gaze of love staring back at us, we are uncomfortable with the wildness in that gaze. To encounter God is to encounter lack of control, to come to ...

The God We Can Know Print Book Rob Fuquay - ROB FUQUAY ...

It's as if we want to know God, but then we're not so sure. The Bible also tells a story of God's desire to be known. The scriptures relate an unfolding drama of God's never-ending desire to come to us—of God's revealing. The highest expression of that desire is the gift of God's self in the person of Jesus. John's Gospel records a collection of self-revealing statements by ...

The God We Can Know DVD | Cokesbury

Can we actually know anything about God? This is one of the most fundamental questions, and many people, particularly agnostics, will say "no." The argument tends to go something like this: God, if there is a God, is so far removed from human experience and knowledge that there's nothing that we can say about Him (or Her or It). Another variation: the only way to verify our knowledge ...

The God We Can Know promotional trailer - YouTube

Scripture also says we can know God in nature see Romans 1. This is an innate, spontaneous, natural knowledge. I think no one who lives by the sea, or by a little river, can be an atheist. Art also reveals God. I know three ex-atheists who say, "There is the music of Bach, therefore there must be a God." This too is immediate. Conscience is the voice of God. It speaks absolutely, with no ifs ...

Twelve Ways to Know God

But can we know God? The Psalmist said, "Taste and see that the Lord is good." Paul said to the Romans, "It is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved." God is not an abstract idea, a philosophical concept, or a proposition. He is the Lord of life and the Lord of all and can be known to those who will humble themselves ...
