Rhetorica In Motion Feminist Rhetorical

Rhetorica in Motion is the first collected work to investigate feminist rhetorical research methods in both contemporary and historical contexts. The contributors analyze the decision-making processes and methodologies employed in deciphering the origins, meanings, theories, workings, and manifestations of feminist rhetoric. The volume examines familiar themes, such as archival, literary, and online research, but also looks to other areas of rhetoric, such as disability studies; gerontology ...

Rhetorica in motion: feminist rhetorical methods ...

In Teaching Rhetorica, Kate Ronald and Joy Ritchie “write that women’s rhetorical practices model an ethos marked not by objectivity and distance but rather by a desire to ‘len[d] specificity to material differences.’ This desire insists ‘on the inextricable links between experience and rhetoric, language and action’ (2006, 9).

Rhetorica in Motion: Feminist Rhetorical Methods ...

Rhetorica in Motion incorporates previous views of feminist research, outlines a set of principles that guides current methods, and develops models for undertaking future inquiry, including working as individuals or balancing the dynamics of group research. The text explores how feminist research embodies what has come before and reflects what researchers, institutions, and instructors bring to it and what it brings to them.
