Branding Faith Why Some Churches And Nonprofits Impact ...

Faith branding is the concept of branding religious organizations, leaders, or media programming, in the hope of penetrating a media-driven, consumer-oriented culture more effectively. Faith branding treats faith as a product and attempts to apply the principles of marketing in order to "sell" the product. Faith branding is a response to the challenge that religious organizations and leaders face regarding how to express their faith in a media-dominated culture.

Ultimately a successful church brand can be defined by the power and focus of the story you tell. Phil Cooke is the author of Branding Faith defines a brand this way "It's about the story that surrounds who you are – a story that creates focus for your ministry." (You can buy his updated book called Unique, I've already pre-ordered it!) Here are some of the common mistakes I've seen churches and ministries make with their branding: 1.
