To dream of a tomb represents a permanent reminder of something in your life that has changed or failed. Always noticing how powerful you used to be. Nostalgia for how great things used to be, remembering your youth, or noticing a great achievement from the past.

Negatively, a tomb may reflect feeling that you lost something perfect that you never get to feel good about again.

The dream is fundamentally image and symbol, and any attempt to literalize it through interpretation is to kill its vitality (the life hidden within death). It also helped me understand the imaginal world of dreams as something that synthesizes opposites, for in dreams an image can mean any number of things at once.
