Diary Of An Old Contemptible

The Diary of an Old Contemptible is an excellent, first person account of life in the trenches of the first world war. Peter Downham has captured the words of Edward Roe accurately, researched the information extensively, and presented a book which transports the reader away from the shores of Ireland all the way to Baghdad with no glamour or emotion.

Diary of an Old Contemptible eBook by Peter Downham ...

The plain, self-effacing title of this book contains its secret and its joke. The wife who was treated as a nobody turns out to be a deadly double agent. In a moment of dramatic irony, David Cameron signs his own dull old work of statesmanship to Sasha with thanks for ‘love and support’.
