Coming Clean - Trafalgar Studios

Coming Clean was fascinating in exactly the way I'm always going to find hoarding stories fascinating. However, the writing was nothing special—generally competent, but with more than its fair share of awkward sentences. I also can't say that I felt anything while reading except for shock at some of the details about the hoarding, so the ...

Coming Clean by Kimberly Rae Miller - Goodreads

COMING CLEAN is a journey into a dark and painful subject but it is also a story - and a fight - that's tied to hope, beauty, and human connection. The COMING CLEAN community is driven by a shared belief system: that in order to disarm this very real threat to American Life we must investigate our country's devastating trend toward loneliness, separation, and the demonization of addiction.

Ondi Timoner's - COMING CLEAN

A remarkably earnest and enrapturing play, Coming Clean looks at the gradual breakdown of a gay couple’s relationship, exploring the often self-contradictory themes of fidelity and love.
