Just This Once is the FIRST "sports" romance book I've ever read and it opened up a whole new genre for me. I'm normally a fan of either paranormal romance or romantic suspense but this book caught my eye as my husband & I had visited New Zealand several years back and I couldn't get the experience out of my mind (yes, we WILL be vacationing there again soon!!!).

Just Once More pays a return visit to all the Escape to New Zealand couples and their families as they get together to celebrate a wedding. Central to the story are Hannah and Drew as they await the arrival of their third child, but a few couples are revisited in a way that gives the reader a glimpse into what came next after their book ended (including Jenna and Finn, personal favorites of mine.)
