Too Big to Fail (TV Movie 2011) - IMDb

Too big to fail is a phrase used to describe a company that's so entwined in the global economy that its failure would be catastrophic. Big doesn't refer to the size of the company, but rather it's involvement across multiple economies. Former President George W. Bush's administration popularized "too big to fail" during the 2008 financial crisis.

"Too big to fail" was a mistake because it bailed out incompetent firms during the global financial crisis.

Breaking up big firms today would also be a mistake and would lead to higher prices, less innovation, and more cronyism.

Innovation through entrepreneurship is the wellspring of economic growth and individual prosperity in this country.
