You need to argue with the dealer and Audi of America about this because the thermostat on the new S4's are known for a bad failure rate due to design issues. I wouldn't pay shit for this crap.
Unless I'm mistaken, there is a TSB for it failing left and right, just like the water pumps. If so, use that as your excuse.
It's bullshit, I wouldn't stand for it man.
