Africa United Soccer Passion Politics

My impression of Africa United was that throughout Africa's history, there has been an everlasting co-existence between politics and soccer. Soccer has brought Africa together in many ways that politics couldn't do. Soccer has also helped fund many different things in economies and politics because it proves to be a large intake of money every time a game is held. My impression of the book was also influenced by the fact that many kids put aside school work to be star soccer players.
