The Reckless Bride is probably the tamest of the four. Each of the books tells of the journey of one of the soldiers tasked with traveling from India to England carrying important evidence needed to stop the Black Cobra cult. Rafe (known as Reckless) has less interference on his journey than the other three, but it is still an exciting story.

Rafe. Like Rafe, Hassan had seen too much of the Black Cobra's villany not to seize the chance they now had to bring the fiend to justice. Drawing rein on the crest of the hill, Rafe wheeled his mount and, through narrowed eyes, searched the wide, flat plain they'd crossed through the morning. Hassan looked, too.
