In my opinion, invisible hurt can be far more serious than physical issues because it requires one to look past facades and dig deeper into one's inner core. I would encourage you to stop and consider the people you rub shoulders with every day. They may look perfectly fine on the outside, but are they secretly hurting on the inside?

Invisible Hurts

It's a terrifying moment to admit you cannot find a reason for your pain. Because how do you treat invisible pain? I found the first answer to that last question was to accept that I didn't need a reason. Once I could accept that my sadness, or worry, or general anguish did not have to have a root cause I finally could move on to getting ...

The Invisible Pain

explores Jonathan's memories of childhood, interspersed with home video footage of an apparently happy childhood from Inner City Manchester before the family moved to a nearby town. Here, the troubles within the family and with his adoptive father came to the fore during Jonathan's late childhood and his teens, eventually leading to major and chronic depression, and the diagnosis of personality disorders.
