Civil Partnership The New Law

Since 31st December 2019, opposite-sex couples have been able to register a civil partnership in England and Wales after The Civil Partnership (Opposite-sex Couples) Regulations 2019 came into force. The legal change coincided with research from The Office of National Statistics that revealed the number of people aged 16 years and over, who aren't married but live with a partner, soared to 5 million in 2018.
