An Atheist in the FOXhole - Wikipedia

The Military Association of Atheists & Freethinkers has adopted the catchphrase "Atheists in Foxholes" to emphasize that the original statement is just an aphorism and not a fact. The over 200 members of this organization publicly display their military service in order to show that there are atheists in foxholes, and on ships, and in planes.

There are no atheists in foxholes - Wikipedia

The claim that there are no atheists in foxholes has been around for a long time, but it became especially popular after the terrorist attacks in the United States on September 11, 2001. This myth tries to claim that during times of great crisis—those which threaten a person's life in particular—it is no longer possible to "hold out" and maintain disbelief in a higher, saving power.
