Historical Erotica, 1999. This review contains spoilers. I'm so disappointed when Robin Schone's The Lady's Tutor contains several fatal flaws kept me from enjoying this novel fully. The author has created a compelling hero and intriguing plot, but she flounders tremendously when it comes to creating a realistic external conflict for this story.

REVIEW: The Lady's Tutor by Robin Schone | HOT SAUCE REVIEWS

I read The Lady's Tutor by Robin Schone because it came up several times in my search for potential 50 Shades of Grey readalikes, and it was one of the few historical romances that appeared on any lists. However, I definitely would not categorize it as a "readalike." It's a historical romance with some explicit sexual content. I'll explain further after the review.
