However, before our last trans-panama voyage, we had to open up the side of the ship on deck three, so we could drop a giant crank shaft into the engine room. We would accomplish this mammoth task by angling the shaft down into the engine room, on a varying angle. This was a long process. It started at about 2:00 am, as soon as we docked into the Port of Miami, then continued until about 6:00 AM.
