Men And Dogs Katie Crouch

I can tell you how many books this year I've started that I couldn't put down: so far there have been 4 - and Katie Crouch's Men and Dogs is one of them. I have to believe those one star reviews might be from other authors, or people who might know Katie and not like her, or simply, readers who don't appreciate books that are smart, funny ...

Men and Dogs. What a great title for an interesting, sometimes hilarious, and always thought-provoking novel. Often I am given books to review where the title or the cover art don't make sense to me after reading the book, but Katie Crouch and the folks at Little Brown have hit the nail on the head with both on this one.
