Welfare Recipients by State 2020
Welfare is a type of government support for the citizens of that society to meet their basic human needs such as food and shelter.

Welfare Recipients by State 2020 -
World Population Review

Social welfare and state intervention are seen as undermining independence, and so freedom. A social model of freedom begins from the view that freedom depends on interdependence. To be able to act, people have to have the power to choose in society. In this model, poverty negates freedom. Social welfare empowers people and enhances their freedom.

The politics of welfare - Social policy
