Communicating Doors | Concord Theatricals

Communicating Doors emerged as a light and unexpectedly optimistic play which questioned what lies behind the communicating doors in hotels. Alan's answer was not an entrance to the adjoining suite, but a doorway through time. It was partly inspired by J.B. Priestley's time-travelling plays, which Alan is known to be fond of, but it is undoubtedly also a homage to Alan's love of film.

Communicating Doors: History

Short Synopsis: Set in a near dystopian future, a dominatrix flees for her life through a hotel communicating door only to find herself 20 years in the past. Stalked by a psychopath in the present and the past, the opportunity to alter time for the better puts the lives of three women at stake.
