This week, I travelled to Finland in a bid to escape the Royal Wedding fever that has gripped the UK. Admittedly, my real motives for the trip have been professional, but the chance to escape was a welcome by-product. I was even prepared to exchange two Bank Holidays in the UK for two working days in Finland just to get away from it all!

The Escape the Wedding Camp site is described as riverside camping, 'with loos, showers and hot and cold water', and will be based at Llwyngwern Farm , a campsite near The Centre for Alternative Technology at Pantperthog. It's owned by one Ralph Beaumont, who, while not being fervently anti-royal himself, is happy to provide a haven for those who are sick sore and tired of the royal wedding and want to escape it.
