The publication of this discography is a reflection of the ever growing interest in the collection and study of records of British dance music and contains, as far as possible, complete data on every known recording by British dance bands from January 1st 1911 to December 31st 1945 and the standard of accuracy achieved by the six years of preparation should ensure that this book will stand for many years as the standard work of reference on the subject.
