More and more youth and workers are adopting a Marxist analysis of the capitalist crisis. We present Fightback's 2018 Perspectives: the need for a militant workers' movement as a discussion document for all those who aim to link revolutionary theory with the real life movement of workers, youth, and the oppressed.

Crisis And Contradiction: Marxist Perspectives On Latin ...

Because crisis is the concentrated explosion of all of the contradictions of capitalistic production, to concretely grasp crisis as such, one must first unfold all of the contradictions of capitalistic production according to their internal relations, and thus the significance of each contradiction as a moment within the totality must be elucidated, and then next one must clarify what processes they pass through and in what sense they must explode in a concentrated manner.

Crisis and Contradiction: Marxist Perspectives on Latin ...

It does not remove the fundamental contradictions of capitalism. All it does is delay the crisis, but exacerbate it when it comes. This crisis is not a crisis of liquidity and credit, as they assert. Marx explained that it is not the lack of money that causes the crisis but the crisis that causes the lack of money.
