Book Review: White Crow by Marcus Sedgwick

WHITE CROW is a deliciously dark, gothic tale of obsession, good versus evil, friendship and love. The story centres around Winterfold Hall and a young girl called Rebecca. In the late 1700's, Winterfold Hall belonged to a man who became obsessed with following one line of knowledge; the knowledge of what

By Marty Mulrooney White Crow is the latest novel from award-winning children's author Marcus Sedgwick, published this month by Orion. BOOK REVIEW - White Crow by Marcus Sedgwick | Alternative ...

Marcus Sedgwick is one, and he does it again with White Crow. The pacing is rather slow as the author slips back and forth between present day and 1798, but the slow pacing is offset by the suspense that builds mercilessly as we learn of the Lovecraftian horrors that occurred in the small village of Winterfold in the 1700's.
