Happy to be Stuck With You by Rich Amooi is a sweet, very short romantic comedy that I read in under an hour. It's perfect length for that quick read before going to bed, or while waiting for an appointment. :) The main characters are co-workers on the MMCs last day on the job. Even though Becca/FMC finds Daniel/MMC attractive, both have always kept their conversations appropriate, and have never fraternized.

Happy to Be Stuck With You. Becca has had an office crush on Danielu0014, Mr. Deliciousu0014, for over a year. Getting stuck in an elevator with him was the last thing she expected. If only she can control her claustrophobia. To make matters worse, they're also stuck with an eighty-year-old man who has a weak bladder, and a penchant for playing cupid.

Delaying divorce until children leave home, or simply forging separate lives (under the pretence of a happy marriage) are not uncommon scenarios (ABS,2010). Their justification: * Kids from nuclear families are less likely to divorce or face domestic violence, have fewer emotional problems, are more likely to attend university, be financially secure, avoid drugs, teen pregnancy and delinquency ...
