Aging in Community Revised Edition: Blanchard Msph, Janice ...

We hear a lot about how seniors want to "age in place" in their own homes, but there is a grassroots movement of aging boomers who are looking for ways to age not just in their own homes--alone and often lonely--but "in community." Aging in community can mean living in an intentional community such as in cohousing, or within a network of neighbors who volunteer to help each other, such as the Beacon Hill Village in Boston.
