English II Staar Persuasive Composition

This time, you'll be asked to write a
persuasive essay,
instead of an
expository one that just gives information.

During the course of English II, you studied the composition of expository texts, as well, but you'll be tested on writing one of the persuasive variety. As with the rest of the English II test, the composition section requires you to recall things you learned in English I, as well as incorporate a few new things from English II.
