Guided Reading 3rd Grade

By third grade, most of my students will be focusing on reading comprehension skills during our guided reading lessons, but I will also have several who will still be working to improve their fluency and accuracy. My groups are flexible and will change every few weeks as needed based upon the needs of the students.

Setting Up for Guided Reading - Third Grade Doodles

In third grade, you will likely not need to meet with all students in a guided reading group. My groups consist of students who are reading exactly at grade level or below. I do not place students who are reading above grade level in a guided reading group. I try to meet with them once every week or so to check in with their reading selections.

Guided reading is an way of packing the direct instruction of many skills into one compact, 20 minute lesson. Emergent (Levels A-C, and Early Readers (Levels D-I) HAVE A LOT TO LEARN ABOUT READING!! They especially need to learn decoding skills.....phonemic awareness, phonics, spelling patterns, etc. Guided reading is THE BEST way to differentiate this learning for these readers.

Guided Reading or Strategy Groups? - Third Grade Doodles

At the 3rd grade level, we highly suggest that encourage students to read aloud as often as possible. This forces them to slow down and pace how they read passages. This leads to long self-processing time which long term will improve their comprehension of what they read. In order to do this successfully you will need to reassure students that your room is a safe space to read aloud.
