Answer: The fall of man occurred sometime after God created the world and after Satan's rebellion in heaven. We find the biblical account of creation and the fall of man in Genesis 1-3. According to the book of Genesis, God spoke everything into existence: sky, planets, seas, vegetation, animals, and everything else.

What truly happened at the fall of man? | GotQuestions.org

From the effects of all events occurring in the course of human history from the fall of Adam until the present that have directly impinged upon man's spiritual growth, man's carnal desire subdues his angelic (malaki) power and thus, through its evil influence, enfeebles his desire for good. This influence and effect is called, in Christian technical language, "inherited sin", for in the course of human history it begins with Adam.

The Fall of the Human Race

The Fall of the Human Intellect is an eye opener of sorts, the coincidence of the subject written by Parthasarathy and the feeling I have been feeling inside was kinda scary at first. The book is a call to arms to start creating, to begin converting the intelligence gained into a creation that will inspire and let other people build their intellect on.

The Fall of the Human Intellect by A. Parthasarathy

The important point is the affirmation that all human beings, even after the fall, are God's image-bearers. Coming into the world as relational beings, they are already members of a covenant community: the covenant of creation, "in Adam." Their status apart from being "in Christ" is not that of nonperson or nonbearer of the divine ...

The Fall of Humanity | Monergism

The fall of man, or the fall, is a term used in Christianity to describe the transition of the first man and woman from a state of innocent obedience to God to a state of guilty disobedience.

The doctrine of the fall comes from a biblical interpretation of Genesis chapter 3. At first, Adam and Eve lived with God in the Garden of Eden, but the serpent tempted them into eating the fruit from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, which God had forbidden. After doing so, they became ashamed of the Fall of man - Wikipedia

Whereas before the fall, man walked openly with God in the garden; after the fall man hid in fear and shame from God (Genesis 3:9–10). God was no longer a Father to be loved, but a Judge to be feared. Because of the fall, mankind became alienated from God, hostile to God, and enemies of God (Ephesians 2:12; 4:18; Colossians 1:21; James 4:4).

The Fall is an astonishing work, full of amazing erudition, all brilliantly organised and argued. The argument that human beings have not always been – and do not have to be – such a psychological mess is presented with a beautiful inevitability and logic. The book is a remarkable feat. Colin Wilson

The Fall by Steve Taylor

The Fall Of The Human Intellect by A Parthasarathy puts forward the idea that the humanity as a whole has ceased to think. The author says that the human mind is no longer able to think rationally or intellectually. According to the book, the human brain has a severe paucity of certain critical faculties such as reason, thought and judgement.
