Late Modern The Visual Arts Since 1945 PDF

In the visual arts, late modernism encompasses the overall production of most recent art made between the aftermath of World War II and the early years of the 21st century. The terminology often points to similarities between late modernism and post-modernism although there are differences. The predominant term for art produced since the 1950s is contemporary art. Not all art labelled as contemporary art is modernist or post-modern, and the broader term encompasses both artists who continue to w

Late Modern The Visual Arts Since 1945 [PDF, EPUB EBOOK]

Modernism refers to a global movement in society and culture that from the early decades of the twentieth century sought a new alignment with the experience and values of modern industrial life. Building on late nineteenth-century precedents, artists around the world used new imagery, materials and techniques to create artworks that they felt better reflected the realities and hopes of modern societies.

Late modern: the visual arts since 1945. (1969 edition ...

Abstract and Keywords. This article examines the historical relation between modernism and the visual arts. It explains that what constituted ‘the modern’ was constantly shifting within the landscape of art in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Thus, to be modern could mean a radical approach to facture and the formal qualities of the artistic medium, and the creation of new visual languages through which to assess modernity, or it might refer to the new subjects for art ...
