Indian Scout Craft And Lore
Authentic and Useful Written by an Indian Scout in 1914, just after both organizations were founded, the Native American seeks to impart his knowledge on boys and girls who are making the effort to commune with nature and learn more about surviving and thriving in the wilderness. He writes in a way that makes it clear his hope is that the children will grow to be adults who understand nature is something to be understood and loved and respected, not destroyed or mutilated.
