The Voice of the Martyrs - Adoniram Judson: Bound for Burma

Adoniram Judson died on 11th April 1850. (47) He had not seen vast numbers saved directly through his ministry, but he will be remembered for his role in the establishment of US missions, his outstanding translation of the Bible into Burmese and his foundational work among the Burmese people.

The Life and Work of Adoniram Judson, Missionary To Burma ...

Adoniram Judson, Jr. was an American Congregationalist and later Particular Baptist missionary, who served in Burma for almost forty years. At the age of 25, Adoniram Judson was sent from North America to preach in Burma. His mission and work with Luther Rice led to the formation of the first Baptist association in America to support missionaries. At times mistakenly referred to as the first

Protestant missionary to Burma, he was in fact preceded by James Chater and Richard Mardon as well as by

Adoniram Judson: Bound for Burma - Bible Baptist Bookstore

Judson was America's first foreign missionary and an example of one who considered, and executed on, his own uniquely strategic role in the completing of the Commission. Though warned not to go to Burma, he entered the country almost 200 years ago — in July of 1813 — and there invested the next 38 years of his life preaching Christ where he had not been named.
