Brand Transform | Marketing and Brand Strategies

The overarching goal of a brand transformation is to elevate your brand above “features and functions” and to help you identify and discuss true differentiators. By default, many companies and employees speak only about the things they make or do, yet this hardly addresses a customer need.

Brand Transformation: What, Why and How?

Founder of The Body Shop Dame Anita Roddick once described a brand as the space you occupy in someone’s mind, so I have followed that philosophy in choosing the brands I most associate with social change. Disability Equality The London 2012 Paralympics shifted perceptions of disability by taking on a challenger brand mentality. For the first time it was going to be as good as, if not better than, the Olympics.
