Changes to the Catholic Mass (In the New Translation)

Most obvious is that, within a liturgical tradition which from time immemorial only ever used the Roman Canon, and despite the instructions of the new Missal, it has become normative in some parts of the world to celebrate every Mass, including on the most solemn feasts, with the Second Eucharistic Prayer, merely because it is short or because of a false sense of antiquity. These tendencies were lamented even by such as Louis Bouyer, who was involved in the drafting of the new Missal.
