Meeting God in Scripture is a real gift for any of us who desire to spend more time with—and deepen our friendship with—the triune God." Carolyn Arends, director of education, Renovaré "Jan does something few contemporary lectio guides do: she preserves the discipline of study that was part of the ancient tradition of lectio divina by providing historical and cultural background for the chosen texts.

Meeting God in Scripture - InterVarsity Press

Meeting God in the Bible continues to show this passion on John's part, and I commend both the work and his heart. As noted above, Meeting God in the Bible is framed in the form of a narrative with two main characters. Sharon, a mature Christian, is a pastor's wife (denomination unspecified), who is discipling a new believer, Victoria.
